Where is the best place TO HANG YOUR HAT?

Anywhere—you're in Jackson Hole! That being said, it really depends on what you're looking for and what region of the valley you'd like to call your temporary home. jht.guide/stay

TOWN OF JACKSON

Some of the advantages of choosing lodging in the town of Jackson include easy access to restaurants—from casual eateries to decidedly upscale dining establishments—and a multitude of shops. There are also a number of venues to enjoy live music and theater just steps away from your downtown hotel.

Other perks include the rodeo grounds, museums and art galleries. Snow King Mountain, which offers both day and night skiing in the winter and numerous activities and events throughout the year, is located on the southern edge of town. Jackson is also a short drive from Jackson Hole Airport and Grand Teton National Park.

The widest range of accommodations is found in town, too, from charming B&Bs to budget motels.

TETON VILLAGE

Your other major lodging choice is Teton Village, the home of Jackson Hole Mountain Resort and many of the valley's largest and most amenity-packed hotels. "The Village" is the happening place to be during the ski season, with its own enviable roster of shopping and restaurant options.

In the winter you have instant access to the ski resort without the hassle of parking—simply carry your skis to the base lift of your choice and off you go into the powder! During the summer months a stay in The Village is quieter, but imbued with expansive views and a mountain feel.

Teton Village is very pedestrian-friendly, so you don't need a car to go anywhere within it. The START bus provides regular service to and from the town of Jackson. And the southwestern entrance to Grand Teton National Park is only minutes away.

WEST BANK/MID-VALLEY

Condominiums and overnight suites are available in the Aspens/Teton Pines area 4 miles south of Teton Village.

Spring Creek Resort, which sits atop East Gros Ventre Butte, is 3 miles west of the town of Jackson and offers a range of overnight and weekly accommodations. Its next-door neighbor, Amangani, caters to the even more luxury-minded.

Scattered throughout the valley are B&Bs, guest ranches, cabins and private homes to rent. Check out vrbo.com and Airbnb.com for the latter option or go to jacksonholetraveler.com for more suggestions.

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK

To experience Grand Teton National Park to its fullest, many people choose to stay within its boundaries in the summer. This offers you the opportunity to be close to what the park has to offer while still being able to travel back and forth to Jackson for other activities and in-town dining.

There are a number of lodging options, from camper cabins in Colter Bay and historic cottages at Jenny Lake Lodge to a full-service resort at Jackson Lake Lodge and an honest-to-goodness dude ranch, the Triangle X, which is the only lodging open in the park in the wintertime!

No matter where you choose to stay while on vacation in Jackson Hole, the Teton Range watches over you. So any choice is the right choice.

Camping

Many campgrounds in the national parks and surrounding Jackson Hole area are first-come, first-served. All will give you incredible views and fresh mountain air—and memories to last a lifetime. The following is a brief overview of your options.

BRIDGER-TETON NATIONAL FOREST: Campgrounds normally open in late May and close in early September, depending on the weather. (A favorite spot is Curtis Canyon, just minutes from downtown, overlooking the entire National Elk Refuge.) Improved camping in designated sites is available for $12 to $15 per night.

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK: There are seven campgrounds throughout the park. Camping fees range from $30 to $40 per night for tent sites and can be more than $60 for some RV campsites.

GROS VENTRE WILDERNESS AREA: For those seeking a true wilderness experience, the Gros Ventre Wilderness Area east of Jackson offers free camping in primitive sites with spectacular views of the Tetons.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK: Daily camping fees range from $15 for basic sites to more than $45 in campgrounds with improved facilities for RVs.

RV Parks

GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARK: There are two trailer/RV-specific campgrounds located in Colter Bay and at Flagg Ranch. Three other campgrounds have electric hookups available.

JACKSON HOLE CAMPGROUND/FIRESIDE RESORT: Full hookups, pull-through at each site and dump station.

FIRESIDE BUFFALO VALLEY RV PARK: Near entrance to Grand Teton and Yellowstone national parks; full hookups, pull-throughs, dump station, laundry and showers.

JACKSON HOLE/SNAKE RIVER KOA: Open April 15th through October 15th; full hookups with Wi-Fi; pets allowed.

THE VIRGINIAN: Open May 1st through October 15th; 104 sites, full hookups, water, dump station, electricity, pull-through sites, swimming pool, laundry and showers.
